-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 26 September 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's response filed on 09/26/2005.
2. Claims 20, 21, 23 and 84-92 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 20, 21, 23, 84, 85 and 86-92 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Glogau, Jordan (WO 9825373) in view of Ginter et al (U.S. Pat. No. 5,892,900).

As per claims 20, 21, 23 and 86-92 Glogau substantially discloses a copy protection system/method that protects web sites (web sites or content distributed) and other works in computer readable form from unauthorized access and/or reproduction (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein it is stated that a method of receiving compensation for a security system for protecting content distributed on a network), comprising:

Art Unit: 3621

selling (terms and condition) a server security program to a content provider (see., abstract, or selling web sites to authorize user, page 19, lines 3-20, terms and condition);

selling a plurality of copies for a limited-use program to the content provider for licensing to users wishing to access the content (see., abstract, page 5, lines 6-20, page 9, lines 22 and 23, page 10, lines 1-24, page 11, lines 1-20, page 19, lines 3-20).

It is to be noted that Glogau fails to explicitly disclose the step wherein the server security program ( server security program or SPU of Ginter) distributes the content to a client system if the client system has a limited-use client program ( limited-use client program or VDE of Ginter) and wherein the limited-use client program is a web browser program configured to disable non-ephemeral reproduction functions of the web browser program while the distributed content is detected. However, Ginter discloses a system/method for electronic commerce including secure transaction management and electronic rights protection. A virtual distribution environment (VDE) may be used to protect rights of various participants in electronic commerce. A secure processing unit (SPU) to help provide a high level of security for VDE (see., abstract, col 3-col 118). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the copy protection method/system of Glogau by including the limitations detailed above as taught by Ginter because this would prevent from being illegally viewed or copied to thereby protect its copyright.

Art Unit: 3621

As per claims 84 and 85, Glogau discloses a copy protection system/method that protects web sites (web sites or content distributed) and other works in computer readable form from unauthorized access and/or reproduction (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein it is stated that a method of receiving compensation for a security system for protecting content distributed on a network), comprising:

providing network accessible protected content from a source (see., abstract, selling web sites to authorize user (or protected content or protected web sites, page 19, lines 3-20);

authorize downloading of protected content from a source to a client system (see., abstract, specifically wherein it is stated that upon passing the test, the copy protection system grants the end-user a license and enables the end-user to download software that facilitates access);

preventing, in at least one way and until compensation is received non-ephemeral reproduction of the downloaded content by the client system until compensation is received (see., page 5, lines 6-20, specifically wherein it is stated that a licensed or authorized end-user may download site copying software to an associated end-user computer system from the copy protection system server..).

It is to be noted that Glogau fails to explicitly disclose the step wherein the server security program ( server security program or SPU of Ginter) distributes the content to a client system if the client system has a limited-use client program ( limited-use client program or VDE of Ginter) and wherein the limited-use client program is a web browser program configured to disable non-ephemeral reproduction functions of the web browser program while the distributed content is detected. However, Ginter discloses a system/method for electronic commerce including secure transaction management and electronic rights protection. A virtual distribution environment (VDE) may be used to protect rights of various participants in electronic commerce. A secure processing unit (SPU) to help provide a high level of security for VDE (see., abstract, col 3-col 118). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the copy protection method/system of Glogau by including the limitations detailed above as taught by Ginter because this would prevent from being illegally viewed or copied to thereby protect its copyright.
